"Hackenschmidt didn't want to meet , lake by Prof. Fred J. Pack. The dis me in England, and every proposition made he turned down. He is a yelow cur and not worthy the attention of any wrestler who is trying to keep the game clean and above board. I was repaid for making the trip anyway, as I showed the English people that the 'Russian Lion' was nothing more than an overgrown pet kitten. Some of the sporting writers there had their eyes opened at least. "FRANK A. GOTCH."

Frank Gotch, world's champion heavyweight wrestler, returned to the United States a sadder but wiser man. When Frank left for England was sure of getting on a return date with the "Russian Lamb," but the best

Gotch spoke about the reception given him by the English sporting public in a very complimentary manner, but when Hackenschmidt's name was mentioned he couldn't find words to express his dislike for the big four flushing foreigner, who has been hippodroming in England as the champion wrestler of the world.

Gotch will remain in New York a few days and then come west. He will spend a couple of weeks at his home in Humboldt, Ia., and then turn his attention to Mahmout, the Turk.
